GREAT NEWS FLASH!!!!

It is finally nearly here... our website is about to go public!!!!
And thanks to our main man, the "up there for thinking, down there for dancing" Dazza, see the whole range of blinds we manufacture, see the 'oh my gosh' huge whole range of options, then see the "freak'n" whole range of emotions that was used up trying to get this "freak'n" thing finished... due to launch February 2018. We will give you a heads up when it debuts on the world stage, of which the centre is in Golden Grove (in our minds anyway).

MEDIUM GREAT NEWS FLASH!!!!

We have been continually tweaking our price lists for user-friendly ease of use. The Visage and Vision Blinds price lists will be converted to groups instead of per fabric range – please note the costings have not changed at all!!

NOT SO GREAT NEWS FLASH!!!!

We are constantly analysing our material costs, sometimes with good news for you guys. We have not increased component pricing for a while now but due to rising costs, as from 1st February 2018, there will be price increases for some, but not all, blind components. One item, for example, is the Louvolite bottom rail, this will be increased to a set price per metre – no discount. A complete list can be issued upon request, just contact our office for info.

This edition's recipient of honour is..... Father Christmas!!!!

(Please note that this is a very special opportunity as we don't often have a chance to keep this guy in one spot long enough to answer some questions for this newsletter... He's a FIFO kinda guy and, just like our young Greg, is in constant demand for his services all over the place.)

An interesting fact?

At home, he's not the one who wears the pants in the family and before you start... neither does the missus.... yep, there's a tribe of homeless little people who live in the top part them, the girls use the right leg for changing into their outfits and.... come'on, you know I'm going to say it.... the boys dress to the left ☺

The Big Ho ....

- Liked to give his little funny ear shaped work colleagues cheeky nicknames until the Anti-Discrimination Board stepped in
- Likes ordering the expensive dishes at restaurants, such as venison just because it's dear....
- Loves giving presents to the world's children, and contrary to public opinion, either good or bad, at midnight on Christmas Eve...mainly because he knows that he's outta there come early Christmas morning and off to the Bahamas, sitting in the pool holding onto his fourth scotch of the day and it's only 7.15 am.....
